THE SHOPS with Sally

● &!$&|*—this does not stand for profanity at all, in case you have already thought so. It is a joyful blast of the siren, and if anyone knows a better way of making a joyful blast of the siren on the tynewriter, we'd like to know too. The reason for the excitemen is that the Daly City Cut Rate Market is holding a big fruit and vegetable combination sale this week that would have amazed our grandmothers—amazes us, in fact. Be sure to get your share of the lovely stacks of fresh produce you can buy there for only 25c before it is too late. Hint: you'll notice that the Cut Rate has some grand grocery specials, too.

● Most Poetic Ad: Daly City Nursery. "Stocks. Snapdragons. Marigolds." Doesn't that set you to dreaming? It does us. And listen to this one: "Plant now for Christmas blooms." We've got blooms and Christmas and marigolds in such a colorful happy blur that we're going down to the Daly City Nursery immediately to do something about it.

● And after that, we're going to the Daly City theatre to hear a debate about Ham and Eggs. We'll be glad to have this Serious matter discussed for us, and hope that the slightly fuzzy feeling we have about it may be all cleared up.

● Also slightly fuzzy, in our opinion, are sandwiches that haven't been toasted—gummy, if you know what we mean. And whether you're inclined to agree or not, we are sure you'll think that Electrex sandwich toasters at Edwards Drug store for only $1.59 each are quite the bargain of the week. Will impress all your fridends, too. (Once more we take the liberty of pointing out that Edwards is a wizard when it comes to the careful compounding

Monster Whist At Masonic Hall

Our Lady of Perpetual Help church is sponsoring a monster whist party to be held in Masonic hall next Wednesday evening, September 20.

More than 50 valuable prizes, including cash, merchandise orders and other useful gifts will be awarded lucky winners.

The committee in charge have put forth every effort to make the affair a success. The general public is cordially invited to attend.

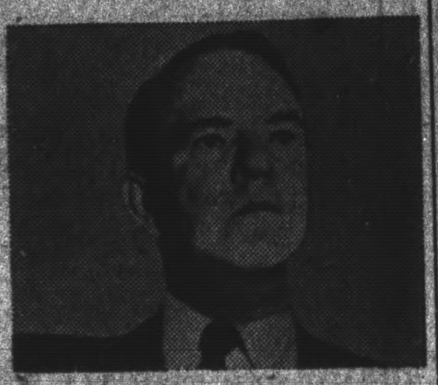
The party starts promptly at 8:30 p. m. There will be a special gift awarded a winner who is in the hall at that time.

The committee also expressed their appreciation for the help they have received.

Farm Markets

For sales at home and abroad, 335,000,000 acres can supply all present available markets. Crops, normally, are harvested from 365,000,000 acres. This means that the American farmers have about 30,000,000 surplus acres for which they lack markets.

So Red the Nose—



The second court battle between W. C. Fields, stage and screen comedian (top), and his doctor, Dr. Geofray Citron, got under way at Los Angeles Wednesday. Dr. Citron, who says he had trouble making the patient behave when curing Fields of pneumonia, was awarded $12,000 at the first trial but Fields appealed and the higher court held the fee excessive.

Television Lines

Because of the extremely wide frequency range required, existing telephone lines will not accommodate television programs. It is possible, however, to transmit them by means of a coaxial cable. The other solution of network television would be by means of a series of microwave radio relay stations.

Big Colma Dance Set For Saturday

Lovchen Gardens, Colma, will be the scene of another big dance tomorrow night, when the Night Owls club of South San Francisco and Colma hold their third gala party of the year.

The idea of regular semi-monthly public dances here has achieved immediate success. The younger set, especially, hvae enjoyed the gay and light-hearted dances sponsored by the Night Owls.

Working with the Night Owls have been several other local clubs including the Dawnbreakers, Decadeers and Ko-Kets-Klub. A newly-organized girls' organization, the Moon-Raiders of Colma and South San Francisco, are also interested.

Conveniently located on Hillside boulevard, the hall has been completely redecorated for the season. Soft colored lights lend their own air of dreamy enchantment to the surroundings, and a hand-picked union orchestra plays melodies that are modern and romantic.

Prices remain nominal, and the public is cordially invited

Petite Thieves

"Gunny and Joe" gave indications of having studied Emily Post at least. After borrowing the motor car of H. W. Jensen, of San Jose, Calif., and driving it about 50 miles, they abandoned it with a note lettered and signed by them on the windshield, which read: "Thanks for the car."

Baseball Travelers

The Baseball magazine says that the initial trip of American baseball teams abroad was in 1874 when the Boston and Athletics of Philadelphia invaded England and Ireland. The tour was the idea of A. G. Spalding, young pitcher of the Boston Red Stockings, and it was he who made all the arrangements.

Clipper Chapeau

Miss Jane Alden

All bedecked with a bird on her bonnet, pretty Jane Alden, head of Style Institute, Inc., of Chicago and New York, is shown as she took off from New York on the trans-Atlantic Clipper for Paris to review styles for the benefit of America's rural millions. Miss Alden, first nationally known stylist to make this fashion flight, wore a "take-off hat" on leaving. Her departure was marked by bon voyage messages from 4-H clubs in 40 states where she will lecture on return.

Witch-Hazel

The commercial product witch-hazel consists of the aqueous distillate obtained by steam distillation from the leaves and branches of Hamamelis virginiana. It contains the volatile oil in solution to which is added about 15 per cent of 95 per cent grain alcohol. The young twigs are gathered during the dormant period and cut into small pieces and then distilled in copper stills.

of all the little pills and powders the doctor prescribes.)

● Remedy for the decreasing birthrate: a modern new Bendix washer from Byrne Radio store. Quick-as-a-flash, this new and effortless way of washing makes a mother's heart rejoice. And it costs so little that it makes a father's heart rejoice, too.

● Sandwiches again: If your children are like mine, they love both sandwich spread and peanut butter sandwiches in their lunches. And if you are like us, you buy them at Milo's Market, where you can be sure of getting only the most pure and wholesome products, and where prices are low. Guess what—Milo's has killed the fatted turkey already, and is asking only 29c a pound for it. Now is the time to practise up on roast turkey while other folks are too busy wrangling over the Thanksgiving date to notice. Did you notice that large frankfurters and delicious garlic sausage are only 15c a pound? War note: Potatoes are going up, and Milo says that now is the time to order a sack.

● If the baby howls at the altar, your guests will forget all about it if you serve them a lovely big christening cake from Geneva Bakery. Their cakes are a dream and a delight to look at, and taste even better.

● Don't forget that when baby gets a little older, milk from the Mission Creamery will just fit the bill for making rosy cheeks and sturdy little legs. Wholesome and rich, you can depend on its constant purity.

● We feel just like a social butterfly when we look at the paper anymore. And the very first place to which we intend to flutter is the Night Owls dance in Colma Saturday night, where birds of all feathers will flutter together... and to the tune of some very fetching music if Dame Rumor speaks aright.

● Next Wednesday night is the Monster Whist party planned by the local parish, and if Dame Rumor should say that the prizes are simply magnificent, Dame Rumor wouldn't be saying enough. (We have seen some of the prizes with our own eyes and we fully intend to win them all.)

● Naturally we won't desert our usual hangout, the Hilltop Lodge, where social buterflies may enjoy old-fashioned fried chicken, Southern style—with music and dancing to boot.

● P. S. If you're the kind of social butterfly who is always catching a heel in the hem of your formal, why not send it to Beeson cleaners? They make small repairs free with cleaning jobs.

● Where is the place in town that you can find 1001 household items, and all at a saving? The Daly City Second Hand store, of course. No matter what it is you need, we venture to say you should go there first.

● Do you feel worse when you wake up in the morning than when you went to bed? Take our word for it, it probably isn't a case of overwork at all, but simply that lumpy old mattress of yours. Do you know that the Daly City Mattress company will make it like new for as little as $1.95?

● When you do get out of bed, remember that your morning orange juice will be cheaper if you take advantage of Lucca Ravioli's wonderful special this week, 2 dozen juice oranges for 15c. Lucca's also has some lovely green peppers this week, among other things. Of course you know that Lucca is famous for the fancy Monterey cheese he sells, and it's only 21c a pound this week. See his ad on page 7 without delay.

● Know what else is delicious? Fresh chicken ravioli made by Granucci and Son. They make only the purest Semolina pastes, and if you think that doesn't count for something, just try their spaghetti, macaroni and ravioli.

● Something else we like is tender breast veal for dressing. And the place to buy it is the Vista Grande Meat market. It's really grand. While you're there you'll notice that the Vista Grande also has a complete assortment of other fine meats.

● If you don't like to cook, our guess is that you have never used one of the new bungalow-type Wedgewood stoves. It's the perfect kitchen range—will cook your food, heat the house and burn the trash . . . besides making the cooking job a real pleasure. And is it pretty! Stop in and take a look.

● Or perhaps you are one of the people who fail to keep canned milk on hand for cooking emergencies. Better stock up on Modesto or Armour's at Robertson's Egg store this week, 4 cans for only 23c.

● Or perhaps you need one of those new modern double-drainboard sinks from S. N. Pfeifer's that will really give you room to work. They're not expensive, either.

● To make a hit with the family: cook some fresh spare ribs from Farmers Meat company. They're nice and lean, and only 22c a pound. Trimmed up with parsley and brown potatoes, they'll make you famous as a cook. By the way, picnic hams are down to 25c a pound at Farmers Meat this week, and can be served in a dozen tempting ways.

● Castle Gadern Special: 2 packages of cigarettes, any brand, for only 27c. A real budget saver.

● Ham and Eggs again: the time to register is now; there are only a few days left. However you feel about it, don't fail to get your vote in order. See page 5 for a complete list of deputies in Daly City.

● See page 3 for specials at Westlake Market. Just to tempt you, we'll mention that Wheaties are 2 boxes for 21c; Lifebuoy, 3

Barrymore Lives 'On Borrowed Time' At D. C. Theatre

Story of Old Man Who Challenges Death Showing Here Now

One of the outstanding Broadway stage successes of last season, which bids fair to be even more successful as a motion picture, is now playing at the Daly City theatre, in the picturization of "On Borrowed Time."

The simple story of an old grandfather who fights Death in order to prevent the young grandson whom he adores from falling into the clutches of a scheming and unscrupulous aunt, "On Borrowed Time" presents Lionel Barrymore in one of his finest characterizations as Gramp. The mysterious stranger, Mr. Brink, personification of Death, is enacted by the British stage and screen star, Sir Cedric Hardwicke, with eight-year-old Bobs Watson, most talked-of youngster of the year, as the grandson, Pud.

Bobs Watson and Lionel Barrymore in "On Borrowed Time"

Beulah Bondi appears as the devoted Granny, Eily Malyon is the hypocritical Aunt Demetria, and Una Merkel enacts Marcia, the warmly human maid. Also appearing are many other prominent stars.

Companion feature on the new bill is "Maisie," the story of an explosive blond, starring Ann Sothern and Robert Young.

Tonight is the last showing of the "Ham and Eggs" debate between Lawrence Allan and Percy Long at the Daly City theatre.

BACON FOR EVERY MEAL IN THE DAY

This Versatile Meat Used in Many Appetizing Ways from Morning to Night

Few meats are so versatile as bacon. For breakfast, it is a favorite with everyone, even including those sleepy-headed youngsters who turn a deaf ear to the alarm clock. For lunch or supper, bacon fills the role as a good quick and easily prepared main dish which is always satisfying. For dinner, bacon again fills an important place since it is a meat which is usually kept on hand and can be used in many ways to stretch the meat dish when unexpected company drops in.

"While bacon is one of the easiest foods to prepare, still there is a right and wrong way," says Inez S. Wilson, home economist. The right way means that the bacon is cooked slowly. The bacon fat should never be allowed to smoke, because this means that it is burning. Bacon may be cooked in a skillet on top of the range, in the oven, or in the broiling oven. If cooked on top of the range, place single layers in a cool frying-pan, and cook slowly until the bacon is a golden brown. It is necessary to turn the bacon frequently so that it cooks evenly, and also pour off the fat as it accumulates.

Cook It in Oven

For a large group, it is convenient to cook bacon in the oven as it requires little watching and a large amount may be cooked at a time. Place bacon on a rack in a dripping pan and cook in the oven at 400° F. until done.

With waffles, bacon is a breakfast favorite. Stuffed bacon rolls are an excellent luncheon or supper choice and the bacon meat loaf is a dinner suggestion which always meets approval. Still further around the clock, crisp bacon and lettuce sandwiches are just right for the evening snack.

Bacon Rolls

Bacon slices
2 cups bread crumbs
½ cup celery
2 teaspoons diced green pepper
1 small onion, finely diced
Salt and pepper
1 egg
½ cup milk

Combine bread crumbs, celery, green pepper, and onion, and season with salt and pepper. Moisten with slightly beaten egg and milk. Place a tablespoon of this dressing on a slice of bacon. Roll the bacon slice around the dressing and fasten the ends with a toothpick. Cook these in the oven until the bacon is crisp and the roll is heated through. Serve while hot.

BACON AND WAFFLES

Cash Value

According to figures presented at the Conference on Child Health, a boy at birth has an economic value of $2,333 in a family with an income of $2,500 a year. At 18 this same boy is worth $28,654. It has cost $7,238 to rear him. The value is estimated by computing his probable income through his working life.

German Hot Dogs

Visitors to Germany, especially Americans whose only knowledge of sausage is limited to "hot dogs," report that part of the gastronomic delight of travel there is tasting other varieties, such as the "Halberstaedter" in central Germany, the "Weisswuerstechen" of Bavaria, and the "Bratwuerste" in Thuringia.

Women Voters

According to a report issued by the National League of Women Voters, American women may now serve on juries in 24 states and the District of Columbia.

The San Francisco Museum of Art announces the showing of an unusual type of exhibition: "Dance Portraits in Watercolor," which will remain at the museum through September 22. The paintings are by Warren Chase Merritt—dances by Marie Von Sabern. The artist, in his "Dance Portraits," has expressed in another medium, that of paint, the rhythm, design, and music of Miss Von Sabern's dances.

Concerning the technique of painting the dances, Mr. Merritt says, "Miss Von Sabern would go through each one once or twice before I would touch the paper. . . The music, of course, had a great effect on the mood, as well as the dance, and the result is really a combination of the three arts, music, dancing, and painting."

Faithful Dog

In front of the Shibuya station at Tokyo, Japan, there is a bronze statue erected in honor of Hachiko, a faithful dog. His master was a teacher at the Imperial Agricultural college and every morning the dog accompanied him to the station, meeting him on his return each evening. After his death Hachiko went to the station every day for seven years.

Broadway in England

Broadway in America is but one street, but visitors who seek Broadway in England find that it is one of the loveliest villages of Warwickshire, and it also consists of but one street lined with homes centuries old embowered in vines and flowers.

Black Is Rule in Autumn Fashions

Predict Splurge of Color Later in Season.

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

Black still remains outstanding fashion news. But watch for a splurge of color later on. A royal battle it will be between black versus color. It is quite surprising, however, with what tenacity black for the daytime dress holds on. Not only does Paris declare that a big percentage of the early fall dresses will be chic black, but those who keep tally on American style doings declare that the call is insistent for daytime frocks of alluring black weaves, placing definite emphasis on the striking simplicity of their styling with back fullness interpreted in versatile bustle effects.

As to featured black weaves their name is legion. Suits of faille silk or bengaline are the talk o' town among the smart set. Mentioning a few of the foremost weaves in black for fall, there's black silk, rayon or wool jersey. The rage for jersey is sweeping the fashion field. Then there's "black magic" in such interesting sheers as cable net which looks sheer but is about as sturdy a material as one can find. Black chiffon too still is good style—so wearable under lightweight autumn coats. Other blacks include mossy crepes matelasses, satin and satin-striped triple sheers and a list which might be continued indefinitely.

Mirage Explained

A mirage is due to conditions existing in the atmosphere. As a result of deviation of the rays of light caused by refraction and reflection, objects seen with the eye appear in unusual positions and often multiple or inverted. One cause of a mirage in the desert is the diminution of the density of the air near the surface of the earth often produced by the radiation of heat, the denser stratum being thus placed above instead of, as is usually the case, below the rarer.

Famed Golden Spike

When the Union Pacific rushing westward, met the Central Pacific line rushing to the east, there came a dramatic moment in Western history. All that drama comes to life again in "Cavalcade of The Golden West," in a scene depicting the driving of the "Golden Spike," by the empire builders. The characters portrayed are (left to right): Dr. Durant, the Nevadan who was Master of Ceremonies, the Hon. F. A. Tritle of Nevada, and Governor Leland Stanford of California, who drove the historic spike. Cavalcade is a major feature of the California World's Fair.
